1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. Scope

- 1.1.1. These listing requirements for securities (hereinafter: "These Listing Rules") shall provide the bases and conditions of and procedure for the listing of securities on the Exchange, the requirements presented for securities listed on the Exchange and submitted for listing on the Exchange and their issuers (hereinafter "Issuer" and "Issuer Applying for Listing", respectively) and the rights and duties.
- 1.1.2. These Listing Rules shall also provide the bases and conditions of and procedure for suspending trading in securities and termination of listing and the rights and duties of the Issuers.
- 1.1.3. These Listing Rules shall also provide bases and conditions of and procedure for admission of securities to the regulated market, operated by the Exchange (hereinafter also: "Secondary list") and the requirements presented for the securities submitted for trading on the regulated market and their Issuers as well as the rights and duties of the Issuers. These Listing Rules regarding listing, listing procedure, delisting, listed securities, their Issuers and trading and clearing and settlement are applicable also to the securities traded on the regulated market, their Issuers and trading in them, unless it arises otherwise from the chapter "Secondary list".
- 1.1.4. In addition to These Listing Rules, the rights and obligations of the Issuers are also provided in the part "Requirements for Issuers" of the Rules; and suspension of trading and termination of listing/trading in part "Surveillance" of the Rules.

1.2. Structure of lists

- 1.2.1. The securities listed on the Exchange are divided into the following Exchange lists:
 - 1.2.1.1. Main List (Exchange list for listed shares and other equity securities);
 - 1.2.1.3. Bond List (Exchange list for listed debt securities);
 - 1.2.1.4. Fund List (Exchange list for listed fund units).
- 1.2.2. In addition to listed securities, trading through the trading system of the Exchange also takes place in the securities admitted to trading to the regulated market, i.e. Secondary list operated by the Exchange, divided as follows:
 - 1.2.2.1. Secondary List (list for the securities admitted to trading to the regulated market, except set out in the clause 1.2.2.2);
 - 1.2.2.2. SPAC List (separate segment for shares of Special Purpose Acquisition Companies admitted to trading to regulated market).

2. LISTINGPROCEDURE

2.1. General provisions

- 2.1.1. Listing is admission of the security to trading to the Exchange via inclusion to the Exchange list (and their lasting inclusion in the securities introduced on the Exchange).
- 2.1.2. The objective of the listing procedure is to determine the suitability of the securities for listing on the Exchange (incl. trading of listed securities).
- 2.1.3. The listing procedure shall start with the acceptance of an application (hereinafter: "Listing Application") submitted for listing securities by the Issuer Applying for Listing (hereinafter also: "Issuer", "Share Issuer", "Issuer of Debt Securities", "Fund", "Management Company", "SPAC") by the Exchange.
- 2.1.4. The Exchange has the right to disclose the fact of starting a listing procedure by means of the information system of the Exchange.
- 2.1.5. Before starting the listing procedure, the Issuer shall pay to the Exchange a fee for starting the listing procedure according to the provisions of the price list of the Exchange. The fee for starting the listing procedure shall not be returned to the Issuer.
- 2.1.6. The Exchange has the right to oblige the Issuer to adhere to the provisions of the part "Requirements for Issuers" of the rules during the listing procedure either partially or fully.
- 2.1.7. The listing procedure shall terminate:
 - 2.1.7.1. by making of a listing decision of securities (hereinafter: "Listing Decision"); or
 - 2.1.7.2. by making a decision to refuse to list securities on the Exchange; or
 - 2.1.7.3. by a withdrawal of the Listing Application by the Issuer; or
 - 2.1.7.4. by considering the Listing Application as rejected on the basis of clause 2.2.2 of These Listing Rules.

2.2. Listing Decision

- 2.2.1. The listing body of the Exchange shall make a decision on the listing or on the refusal to list securities within three (3) months after the start of the listing procedure, unless the law prescribes a shorter term. If the Exchange or its listing body demands from the Issuer submission of additional information or supplementary documents in the course of the listing procedure, the listing body shall make a decision within three (3) months after the submission of all the required information by the Issuer, but not later than within six (6) months after the start of the listing procedure, unless the law prescribes a shorter term.
- 2.2.2. If the listing body does not make a decision during the term specified in clause 2.2.1 of These Listing Rules, the Listing Application shall be considered as rejected.

- 2.2.3. The first trading day of the securities submitted for listing shall be set out in the Listing Decision.
- 2.2.4. If a Listing Decision is made, the Issuer shall, before starting the listing, pay to the Exchange an admission fee not to be refunded according to the price list of the Exchange. If the Issuer delays the payment of the admission fee, the first trading day of the Issuer's securities shall be postponed by the number of the delayed days.
- 2.2.5. When making a decision on listing or refusal of listing, the listing body shall take the terms imposed on the Issuers and its securities and required documents, incl. its Prospectus, under the laws and other legal acts, incl. legal acts of the European Union regulating listing issues, as the basis.
- 2.2.6. The listing body has the right, according to its estimation of the financial status of the Issuer, market position, client structure, growth potential, management, field of activity, reputation, future prospects or other significant matters from the point of view of estimating the Issuer's economic activities, to refuse a securities listing on the Exchange also when the Issuer and the issued securities are in accordance with the terms imposed by These Listing Rules, if such matters according to the Listing Body would harm the interest of investors, orderly functioning of the market or damage the reputation of the Exchange.
- 2.2.7. The listing body has the right, for the purpose of ensuring a sufficient liquidity of a security, to demand from the Issuer Applying for Listing a conclusion of a market-making agreement with a member of the Exchange in respect of the securities to be listed.

2.3. Listing body

- 2.3.1. The listing body referred to in These Listing Rules is the Listing and Disciplinary Committee of the Exchange (hereinafter: Listing Committee), unless provided differently.
- 2.3.2. The Listing Committee shall be competent to:
 - 2.3.2.1. decide on listing of securities and including securities to the Exchange list, termination of listing, admission securities to trading to the Secondary list, termination of the trading on the Secondary list, unless otherwise stipulated in these Rules;
 - 2.3.2.2. decide on making exceptions placed in the competence of the listing body on the basis and to the extent by legal acts and the Rules to the listing body;
 - 2.3.2.3. decide on the other matters placed in the competence of the listing body in accordance with the terms of the legal acts and the Rules;
 - 2.3.2.4. establish the rules and regulations of the Listing Committee for the purpose of organizing its procedures and activities;
 - 2.3.2.5. propose the management board of the Exchange to amend the parts „Listing Rules“ and „Requirements for Issuers“ of the Rules.
- 2.3.3. The members of the Listing Committee will be elected and removed by the Supervisory Council. The Listing Committee shall consist of five (5) members, unless the Supervisory Council is not determined greater number of members. Under the decision of the Supervisory Council the Listing Committee may consist up to nine (9) members.

- 2.3.4. Only a legally competent natural person with spotless professional and business reputation may be elected as a member of the Listing Committee (hereinafter: member of the committee). Members of the committee are elected by the Supervisory Council for tenure of three (3) years. In the event new member of the Committee have not been duly elected by the day of termination of the powers, the member of the committee will perform his/her duties until the election of new member or until his/her removal by the Supervisory Council.
- 2.3.5. The Listing Committee shall elect chairman among the members of the committee. The Supervisory Council of the Exchange has right to decide that they do not approve the choice of the chairman. In this event the Supervisory Council of the Exchange appoints the chairman among the members of the committee.
- 2.3.6. The activities of the Listing Committee are coordinated and the meetings of the Listing Committee shall be convened by the chairman of the Listing Committee, by a member of the committee appointed by him/her or by the management board of the Exchange.
- 2.3.7. The Listing Committee shall hold its meetings as the need arises. The meeting of the Listing Committee shall be competent to pass decisions, if more than a half of the members of the committee, entitled to vote, participate. The Listing Committee shall have the right to adopt decisions also in another format that can be reproduced in writing, including voting by e-mail.
- 2.3.8. The resolutions of the Listing Committee shall be passed by a simple majority of votes. Each member of the committee shall be entitled to one (1) vote. In case of equal distribution of votes, the chairman or deputy member of the committee chairing the meeting, if the latter is absent, shall have the casting vote. The member of the committee shall have no right to refuse from voting or remain unbiased, except in the event of his/her conflict of interests under the provisions of the Rules. The dissenting opinion of a member of the committee shall be added in writing to the minutes.
- 2.3.9. Meetings of the Listing Committee shall be recorded in minutes. The minutes shall be approved in the format reproducible by the chairman of the Listing Committee or a member of the committee chairing the meeting and the secretary of the meeting. If a decision of the Listing Committee is adopted without convening a meeting, a record of voting of the Listing Committee shall be prepared and the written votes of the members of the committees having voting right shall be added.
- 2.3.10. The decisions of the Listing Committee shall be recorded in a format reproducible in writing. The effective date of the decision shall be specified in the decision.

In determining this date, the Listing Committee shall give due consideration to the interests of investors. In addition to the data stipulated by the Rules, the decision shall set out the essence of the question or application discussed, the decision of the Listing Committee and, in the event of the conflict of interests of the member of the committee, the name of this member with the relevant notice.

- 2.3.11. A member of the Committee shall not participate in voting nor at the meeting during a discussion of a specific issue if his/her conflict of interests will arise. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, the situation shall be considered as the conflict of interests, if the member of the committee is connected with the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange with respect to whom the Listing Committee shall pass a decision in accordance with provisions of the legal acts or the Rules.

For the purposes of the Rules the member of the Committee and an Issuer or the member of the stock exchange shall be deemed to be connected persons, if:

- 2.3.11.1. the member of the Committee is a member of the management board, supervisory council or directing body or an employee of the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange or company belonging to the same group with the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or
- 2.3.11.2. the member of the Committee of his/her employer owns ten percent (10%) or more of the votes represented by shares of the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or company belonging to the same group with the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or
- 2.3.11.3. being itself a shareholder of the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange, the member of the Committee or his/her employer has the possibility to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the supervisory council or management board of the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or company belonging to the same group with the issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or
- 2.3.11.4. being itself a shareholder of the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; or a company belonging to the same group with the Issuer or the member of the stock exchange; the member of the Committee or his/her employer controls a majority of the votes represented by shares on the basis of an agreement concluded with other shareholders.
- 2.3.11.5. the member of the Committee is for any other reason connected with the Issuer or the member of the Exchange or is personally interested in the resolution. The member of the Committee may notify the Committee of this connection, but the committee may also decide that the member of the Committee has conflict of interests on basis of this. In the event a member of the Committee has not notified of his/her conflict of interests, but the Committee finds that this is a conflict of interests of a member of the Committee, the committee may make a relevant decision and withdraw him/her from the discussion of a specific issue and making of a decision.
- 2.3.12. After becoming aware of the meeting of the Listing Committee which will pass a resolution regarding to the issuer who is connected to the member of the committee, the member shall immediately inform the Exchange about his/her conflict of interests in a format that can be reproduced in writing. The chairman of the Listing Committee shall inform the member of the Exchange about his/her conflict of interests; in case the decision about conflict of interests is made by the Committee this is recorded in ordinary way.

2.3.13. In the event the member of the Committee shall not perform his/her obligation to submit information about the conflict of interests, the Supervisory Council of the Exchange has the right to remove the member of the Committee.

2.3.14. Members of the Committee shall keep confidential internal information and any information learned when performing their work duties or position as the member of the Committee. For the purposes of the present rules, any information which has not been made public, but which is being used by the Listing Committee in the process of making decisions on listing securities or admitting securities for trading or information used by the members of the Committee for decision-making in respect of sanctions imposed on the Issuer or a member of the stock exchange or any other issues discussed by Committee as well as the opinions of the members of the Committee presented in discussions, shall be considered as the inside information.

2.4. Initial Listing Decision

2.4.1. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, an Initial Listing Decision is the first Listing Decision, at the moment of the making of which none of the securities issued by the Issuer Applying for Listing are listed on the Exchange.

2.4.2. If the first application for listing is rejected, the Issuer has the right to submit a new application, which the listing body examines no sooner than after six (6) months have passed from the rejection of the previous application. On the basis of the Issuer's application, the listing body has the right to shorten the term.

2.5. Supplemental Listing Decision

2.5.1. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, a supplemental Listing Decision is a Listing Decision at the moment of the making of which some of the securities issued by the Issuer Applying for Listing are listed on the Exchange. A Supplemental Listing Decision shall be made by the Management Board of the Exchange, who is the listing body regarding this decision for the purposes of these Rules. The Management Board is also the listing body regarding listing of the debt securities of share Issuer, but in this case Management Board has a right to send relevant case for decision making to the Listing Committee.

2.5.2. If the listing body has decided not to satisfy the Issuer's application for supplemental listing of securities, it has the right to terminate the listing of all the Issuer's securities of the same class on the basis of clause 13.2 of These Listing Rules.

2.6. Conditional Listing Decision

2.6.1. The listing body has the right to adopt a conditional Listing Decision, if the Issuer Applying for Listing and/or the securities issued by it are, at the time of filing the application, not in compliance with the conditions imposed by These Listing Rules, but the listing body is of the opinion that the Issuer and securities issued by the Issuer will be in compliance with the conditions for issuers and securities imposed by These Listing Rules, as a result of a securities issue, a public tender or other activity carried out after the making of a conditional Listing Decision but before the arrival of the term established in These Listing Rules.

- 2.6.2. A conditional Listing Decision shall become valid at the time provided in it, when the Issuer has fulfilled all conditions provided in the conditional Listing Decision by the term set by the listing body and the Issuer and the securities issued by it comply with the conditions provided in These Listing Rules.
- 2.6.3. The first trading day of securities listed under a conditional Listing Decision shall be set forth in the conditional Listing Decision.
- 2.6.4. Immediately after the fulfilment of the conditions of the conditional Listing Decision, the Issuer shall submit to the Exchange a report regarding the fulfilment of the conditions provided in the conditional Listing Decision.
- 2.6.5. If the Issuer has failed to fulfil all the conditions provided in the conditional Listing Decision by the term provided in the conditional Listing Decision or if the Issuer or securities issued by such Issuer are not in compliance with the conditions imposed by These Listing Rules, as well as if the Exchange has good reasons to believe that the provisions of legislation or issue conditions were violated during the issue of the securities, public tender or other activity, the Exchange may refer the Listing Application to the listing body for a new review.
- 2.6.6. If a conditional Listing Decision has been referred to the listing body for a new review, the listing body has the right to:
 - 2.6.1.1. regard the conditions as fulfilled; or
 - 2.6.1.2. grant the Issuer an additional term to fulfil the conditions; or
 - 2.6.1.3. revoke the conditional Listing Decision.

2.7. Disclosure of decision

- 2.7.1. A decision of the listing body shall be disclosed to the Issuer in the format reproducible in writing within five (5) trading days after the making of the Listing Decision, but at latest the day before trading will begin.
- 2.7.2. If a Listing Decision is not satisfied, a notice about the decision shall also include the reasons for the refusal of the listing.
- 2.7.3. The Exchange shall disclose the Listing Decision through the information system of the Exchange.

2.8. Contest of the decision

If the listing body did not satisfy the Listing Application or if the listing body did not make a decision during the term provided in clause 2.2.1 of These Listing Rules, the Issuer has the right to contest the decision of the listing body and to refer the dispute for settlement to the Arbitration Court of the Exchange within thirty (30) days after the making of the decision or expiry of the term provided in clause 2.2.1 of These Listing Rules.

2.9. Agreement for listing securities

Within five (5) trading days after the making of the first Listing Decision of securities, the Issuer is obliged to conclude a written agreement with the Exchange for listing the securities, which shall provide, among other things, also the duty of the Issuer to adhere to the provisions of the rules. The Exchange does not start trading in the Issuer's securities unless the agreement has been concluded.

3. LISTING APPLICATION

3.1. Submission of Listing Application

- 3.1.1. An Issuer wishing to list its securities on the Exchange is obliged to submit to the Exchange an application for listing the securities together with the other documents provided in These Requirements or required by the Exchange.
- 3.1.2. As an exception to clause 3.1.1 of These Listing Rules, additional documents to the application need not be submitted to list the pre-emptive subscription rights under clause 6.1.8, unless the listing body decides otherwise.
- 3.1.3. The Listing Application shall comprise all the securities of the same class/type and granting the same rights issued or to be issued, but not listed on the Exchange.

3.2. Form of Listing Application and auditor of the Fund or Management Company unless disclosed in the Prospectus;

- 3.3.12.8. the audited annual report and semi-annual reports of the Fund concerning the financial year preceding the submission of the application if they exist. If more than nine (9) months have passed from the termination of the financial year preceding the submission of the application, also the semi-annual report of the Fund concerning the first half-year of the current financial year.

3.4. Exception to information added to Listing Application

Proceeding from the specific circumstances, the listing body has the right to decide that the submission of some of the documents listed in clause 3.3 as an annex to the Listing Application is not necessary for making a Listing Decision.

3.5. Right to additional information

- 3.5.1. In addition to the information and documents provided in These Listing Rules, the Exchange and the listing body have the right to demand of the Issuer Applying for Listing also other information and documents, the submission of which the Exchange or listing body consider necessary to decide on the suitability of the securities for listing on the Exchange; and also publishing this information by Issuer.
- 3.5.2. The Exchange has the right to demand of the Issuer information about the location, areas of activity and owners of a shareholder who is a legal person that holds five per cent (5%) or more of the votes represented by the Issuer's shares as well as about the persons authorized to represent it.

4. PROSPECTUS

4.1. Prospectus

In addition to the other documents and information submitted by the Issuer, the listing body shall rely, when making a Listing Decision or a decision to refuse listing, on the Prospectus, submitted by the Issuer.

4.2. Requirements for the Prospectus

- 4.2.1. If required by the laws, the Issuer shall draw up listing prospectus, prospectus of public offering or other offering document (Prospectus). Prospectus shall be submitted to the Exchange. Prospectus shall be submitted in an electronic format.
- 4.2.2. The Prospectus shall comply to the requirements provided in the laws.
- 4.2.3. Repealed
- 4.2.4. The Exchange has the right to require of the Issuer Applying for a Listing of Securities on the Exchange the additional information regarding information published in Prospectus and publishing this information through Exchange disclosure system; or publish this information itself. Submission of required additional information is obligatory for Issuer.
- 4.2.5. If the Issuer finds that the additional information required by the Exchange may significantly damage its interests, the Issuer has the right to submit a written application together with required information to the listing body against disclosure of the relevant information.
- 4.2.6. The listing body has the right to satisfy the relevant application of the Issuer if such information is not material, according to the listing body, for making an investment decision and/or for interpreting the information included in the Prospectus.

4.3. Exceptions to requirement to submit Prospectus

- 4.3.1. When listing the securities of the Issuer applying for supplemental Listing Decision, the listing body may make exceptions from the requirements for the documents submitted for listing, incl Prospectus, provided that this is in accordance with laws.
- 4.3.2. The listing body has the right to make a decision on listing on the Exchange on the basis of a public offer prospectus or similar offering document, which the Issuer has published not more than twelve (12) months before the submission of application for listing of the securities and which adheres to the provisions of the legal acts and the rules of the Exchange concerning the information contained in the Prospectus. The Issuer applying for the making of a Listing Decision on the basis of the public offer prospectus shall submit to the listing body the public offer prospectus together with information about the changes, which have occurred since the Financial Supervision Authority approved the Prospectus.
- 4.3.3. Repealed

- 4.3.4. The submission of the Prospectus to the Exchange and publishing of this is not needed, if at least one (1) condition, set out in the laws, is applicable.
- 4.3.5. If the provisions of the laws or These Listing Rules do not require submission of the Prospectus by the Issuer, the Issuer is obliged to submit to the Exchange a Listing Application for listing the shares and the following information and documents:
- 4.3.5.1. data on the shares to be listed and the amount of the Issuer's share capital before and after the issue;

- 4.4.1. The Prospectus shall be published no later than three (3) trading days before the first trading day of the securities, unless provided differently in legal acts.
- 4.4.2. Repealed
- 4.4.3. The Prospectus shall be published in accordance with the requirements of laws and electronically forwarded to the Exchange in the format imposed by the Exchange.
- 4.4.4. Repealed
- 4.4.5. The Issuer is obliged to inform the Exchange immediately of any circumstances, which might influence the price of the securities, which occur during the period from publication of the Prospectus until the start of the trading of the securities on the Exchange. The Issuer is obliged to submit all such circumstances to the Exchange to be published through information disclosure system of Exchange, unless these circumstances were published in the annex to the Prospectus.

5. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LISTING OF SECURITIES

5.1. Requirements for Issuers

- 5.1.1. An Issuer Applying for Listing shall be established, and its operation shall comply to the legislation of its country of registration
- 5.1.2. The Exchange has the right not to list on the Exchange the securities of such an Issuer against which liquidation proceedings or bankruptcy proceedings or a moratorium had been initiated or who has experienced permanent solvency problems in the two (2) years preceding the submission of the Listing application.
- 5.1.3. The economic, legal or other situation of the Issuer Applying for Listing shall not jeopardise the protection of the interests of investors and their fair and equal treatment.
- 5.1.4. The Issuer Applying for Listing shall pass a sanctions screening check to the satisfaction of the Exchange. In addition, the Exchange may at any time while an Issuer's securities are admitted to trading require the Issuer to pass an additional sanctions screening check to the satisfaction of the Exchange.

5.2. Requirements for securities submitted for listing

- 5.2.1. The securities submitted for listing shall be freely transferable and the right to pledge them may not be restricted by the articles of association of the Issuer.
- 5.2.2. The Securities submitted for listing on the Exchange shall be registered with the Estonian Central Register of Securities or with some other similar register or database that, in the opinion of the Exchange, adequately ensures the appropriate settlement and execution of the obligations arising from the securities transactions.
- 5.2.3. Repealed
- 5.2.4. The securities submitted for listing shall be in compliance with the provisions of the legislation applicable thereto and shall be issued in accordance with the applicable legislation and the provisions of the articles of association of the Issuer.
- 5.2.5. The preferred shares submitted for listing on the Exchange shall grant their holders voting rights at least if a resolution for delisting is adopted.

5.3. Financial reports of Corporate Issuer

- 5.3.1. The annual reports submitted by a Corporate Issuer Applying for Listing shall be audited by an auditor approved by the Exchange.
- 5.3.2. by the Exchange.

- 5.3.3. Reporting by a non-resident Issuer shall comply to the international accounting standards applicable in the European Community.

5.4. Articles of Association of Corporate Issuer

- 5.4.1. The articles of association of a Corporate Issuer shall comply with the provisions of the applicable laws.
- 5.4.2. The articles of association of the Share Issuer shall set out that the consent of the Supervisory Council is required in addition to conclusion of transactions with members of the management board of the company also to a transaction between the Share Issuer and the company, in which a member of the management board or a person connected with the member has a material holding. In case if a similar obligation of a Foreign Issuer is set forth in another relevant document of a foreign issuer or in a legal act of the location of the Foreign Issuer, these restrictions are not required to be set forth in the statutes of a Foreign Issuer.
- 5.4.3. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, a person is regarded as connected with a member of the management board of the Issuer if that person is cohabiting or a person sharing a common household with him/her for at least a year, including his/her underage children and the companies controlled by the member of the management board. To determine a controlled company, the provisions of Securities Market Act shall be taken as the basis.
- 5.4.4. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, a holding in a company is considered a majority holding if a person holds ten per cent (10%) or more of the voting rights represented by shares. To determine the voting right, the provisions of Securities Market Act shall be taken as the basis.
- 5.4.5. When the articles of association of the Share Issuer provide the right to suspend sending of dividend warrants to a shareholder to whose bank account dividends cannot be transferred, the right may not be implemented until payment has proven impossible for two (2) consecutive years and when, after sending the second notice, all reasonable efforts have been made to establish any new address of the shareholder.

6. SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LISTING SHARES

6.1. Increase of share capital of Share Issuer

6.1.1. If, as a result of a new issue, shares of the same class/type as the shares listed on the Exchange are issued, an Issuer shall be required to apply for their listing on the Exchange in accordance with the provisions of These Listing Rules. The Issuer shall be required to submit a Listing Application for the listing of the new shares no later than on the day when the securities are transferred to the securities accounts.

6.1.2. Repealed

6.1.3. For the purposes of These Listing Rules, the price of shares shall be considered materially more favourable than the market price of the shares if the sale price of the new shares is more than ten per cent (10%) lower than the average closing price during the last ten (10) trading days preceding the day of determining the sale price of the shares to be issued.

6.1.4. If the increase in the share capital has not been registered with the commercial register, the Exchange shall list the new issued shares by giving the shares a code, which shall differ from the code of the listed shares of the same class/type already listed on the Exchange.

6.1.5. An Issuer is required to register shares to which special rights have been attached and shares that grant similar rights but have not been listed under an ISIN-code, which differs from that of the securities registered with the Estonian Central Register of Securities or other similar register or database.

6.1.6. After the Issuer has informed the Exchange of the entry in the commercial register in regard the increase in the share capital and that the new issued shares shall give equal rights with the shares of the same class already listed on the Exchange, including an equal right to receive a dividend on the next dividend payment together with the shares of the same class already listed on the Exchange, the Exchange shall list the new issued shares under a code that is identical with that of the shares of the same class already listed on the Exchange.

6.1.7. If an Issuer who has submitted the first application for the listing of its shares on the Exchange conducts a new issue of shares before the listing of the shares, the provisions of sub-clauses 6.1.4 and 6.1.6 shall be applied to the listing of the shares on the Exchange to be issued additionally.

6.1.8. If shareholders have a pre-emptive right to subscribe for new shares to be issued, the listing body shall list on the basis of a relevant application of the Issuer also the rights to subscribe for the new shares, by giving them a special code. The trading in such rights shall start on the first (1.) trading day of the subscription period and shall end two (2) trading days prior to the end of the subscription period.

6.2. Duration of business activities of Share Issuer

An Issuer applying for listing in the Main List of shares shall have been engaging in its main field of activity for at least three (3) years. The listing body has the right to make exceptions to this requirement according to its estimation of the financial status of the Issuer, market position, field of activity, reputation, future prospects or other significant matters from the point of view of estimating the Issuer's and/or its economic activities.

6.3. Financial reports of Issuer

An Issuer applying for listing in the Main List of shares shall submit to the Exchange the audited annual reports for the three (3) preceding financial years unless not appended to the Prospectus. The listing body has the right to make exceptions to this requirement.

6.4. Minimum market value or equity capital

Shares may be admitted to the Main List if their market value (if the market value cannot be assessed, the equity capital of the public limited company) is at least four (4) million euros. The listing body has the right to make exceptions to this requirement provided that sufficient interest may be expected in trading the shares on the secondary market.

6.5. Distribution of shares

6.5.1. A sufficient number of shares to be listed shall be held by the investors belonging to the public no later than by the start of the listing and also during whole period of listing on the Exchange. This condition shall be considered as fulfilled if:

6.5.1.1. at least twenty-five per cent (25%) of the share capital represented by the shares to be listed is held by investors who belong to the public; or

6.5.1.2. taking into account the number of the shares and their distribution among investors who belong to the public, the market would also operate properly at a lower percentage of shares held by investors who belong to the public; or

6.5.1.3. the aforementioned degree of distribution may be expected to be achieved over a short period after the start of the listing of the shares on the Exchange.

6.5.2. Shares are not regarded as held by the public if they or the votes represented by them are held by a member of the management, the management board or supervisory board of the Issuer or its subsidiary or a person connected with the member.

6.5.3. If more than five per cent (5%) of the share capital represented by the shares to be listed is in the ownership of one shareholder, the shares held by the shareholder are not regarded as held by the public unless the listing body determines that the shareholder may, for the purposes of this condition, be regarded as belonging to the public.

7. SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LISTING SHARES OF COMBINED SPAC

7.1. Special Purpose Acquisition Company and Business Combination

- 7.1.1. The specifications set out in this clause 7 shall be applicable to the listing requirements, conditions and process in relation to the subsequent listing of an entity (Combined Issuer) consisting of the Special Purpose Acquisition Companies (SPAC) and one or several Target Company(ies) as a result of Business Combination. In relation to the listing of the Combined Issuer These Listing Rules are applicable with specifics set out in this clause, which are special provisions in relation to general listing rules.
- 7.1.5. The requirements, conditions, and process for admission to trading of SPAC shares are set out in the clause 16 and 17 of These Listing Rules.

7.2. Listing of the Business Combination

- 7.2.1. Following the completion of all Business Combinations, the Combined Issuer (i.e., SPAC merged or otherwise combined with Business Combination(s)) to be listed must meet the listing requirements for Initial Listing set forth in These Listing Rules.
- 7.2.2. In case the Combined Issuer does not meet the listing requirements following a Business Combination(s) or does not comply with one of the requirements set forth in the Clause 17 or in Prospectus, the Exchange may decide to terminate the trading in the shares of the SPAC without listing shares of the Combined Issuer. Please see also Clause 16.9.3.
- 7.2.3. For any Business Combination that requires approval of the General Meeting of the Shareholders pursuant to 7.6.1. above, the SPAC must initiate a new listing process as soon as possible after the entry into definitive documentation (e.g., a signed purchase agreement or similar) relating to such Business Combination.
- The Exchange will not initiate a listing process related to a potential Business Combination without such definitive signed documentation being in place.
- 7.2.4. For the purposes of Clause 7.6.3., the approval of Exchange means adoption of Conditional Listing Decision in accordance with Clause 2.6.1. in relation to Business Combination with the condition that the SPAC will meet all other requirements set forth in These Listing Rules for Combined Issuer to be listed. For the purposes of Clause 2.6.2. the Conditional Listing Decision shall become valid at the time provided in it, when the SPAC and its securities will comply all conditions set out in These Listing Rules and Prospectus or Information Memorandum by the term set in These Listing Rules.
- 7.2.5. In case the Prospectus is not required by the EU Prospectus Regulation or law for listing/admission to trading the Combined Issuer, the Issuer shall publish the Information Memorandum in accordance with the Clause 17.3.4.

16.2.2.3. According to the estimation of the listing body, the sufficient interest of investors may be expected in trading the securities on Secondary List, i.e., a sufficiently active secondary market shall be created for the securities submitted for admission to the Secondary list according to the assessment of the listing body.

16.2.2.4. In case the Issuer applying its securities for admission to trading to the Secondary List has been engaged in its main field of activity more than two (2) years, the Issuer shall submit to the Exchange the audited annual reports for the two (2) last preceding financial years unless these are appended to the Prospectus.

16.2.2.5. Shares may be admitted to the Secondary List if their market value (if the market value cannot be assessed, the equity capital of the public limited company) is at least one (1) million euros.

16.2.2.6. The total of the nominal values of the debt securities submitted for admission to trading to the Secondary List shall be at least two hundred thousand (200,000) euros.

16.2.3. The Issuer applying for admission of its shares to the trading to SPAC List and its shares shall comply to clause 17.

16.2.4. Based on the specific circumstances, the listing body has the right to make exceptions to the requirements provided in the clauses 16.2.2 and

16.3. Procedure for admission to Secondary List

16.3.1. The provisions of clauses 2 and 3 of the part "Listing requirements" of the Rules shall apply to the application for admission of a security to trading the Secondary List, incl. SPAC List and its processing.

16.3.2. The listing body of the Exchange shall make a decision on admission of the securities to trading to the Secondary List.

16.3.3. When making a decision on admission to trading or refusal of it, the listing body shall take the terms imposed on the Issuers and its securities and required documents, incl. its Prospectus, under the laws and other legal acts, incl. legal acts of the European Union and These Listing Rules regulating admission to trading, as the basis.

16.3.4. A decision on admission of the securities to trading to the Secondary list shall be made on the basis of an application submitted by the Issuer or a third person (hereinafter: the applicant for admission). If the application for admission of the securities to the Secondary list is submitted by the applicant for admission, it shall also submit together with the application a written consent of the Issuer for admission of the securities to the trading to the Secondary list and to comply with the obligations and of the duties arising from the Rules.

- 16.3.5. Before deciding on admission of the securities to trading to the Secondary List, the Issuer is obliged to submit to the Exchange a confirmation in the form imposed by the Exchange that the Issuer undertakes to adhere to the provisions of the Rules as well as other confirmations listed in the clause 3 (except in the clause 3.3.11.4) of Listing Rules.

16.3.6. Repealed

- 16.3.7. The Listing body has the right to request from the Issuer additional information for making a decision on admission to the Secondary List prior decision making and to disclose the information submitted by the Issuer upon admission of the securities to the Secondary List.

- 16.3.8. All the securities of the same class/type issued by the Issuer shall be admitted to trading to the Secondary List.

- 16.3.9. A decision of the listing body shall be disclosed to the Issuer in the format reproducible in writing within five (5) trading days after the making of the decision.

If the listing body of the Exchange decided on admission of the securities to trading to the Secondary list under the application submitted by an applicant of the admission, the Exchange shall notify the Issuer of the decision at least five (5) calendar days before starting trading.

If the application is rejected, a notice about the decision shall also include the reasons for the refusal of the admission.

The Exchange shall disclose the decision through the information system of the Exchange.

- 16.3.10. If the listing body did not satisfy the Application or if the listing body did not make a decision during the term provided in clause 2.2.1 of The Listing Rules, the Issuer has the right to contest the decision of the listing body and to refer the dispute for settlement to the Arbitration Court of the Exchange within thirty (30) days after the making of the decision or expiry of the term provided in clause 2.2.1 of The Listing Rules

- 16.3.11. Before starting trading in the securities on the Secondary List, the Issuer is obliged to conclude a written agreement with the Exchange for admitting the securities to trading to the Secondary list, which, among others, also shall include the Issuer's obligation to adhere to the provisions of the Rules. The Exchange will not start trading in the Issuer's securities unless the agreement has been concluded.

16.4. Submission of trading prospectus

- 16.4.1. In order to admit securities to trading to the Secondary list, the applicant shall submit to the Exchange the Prospectus registered by FSA (trading prospectus, public offer prospectus or other similar document set forth in laws), the content of which complies to the requirements set forth in legal acts, incl. legal acts of the European Union regarding Prospectuses for admitting securities to trading on regulated markets.
- 16.4.2. The Exchange has the right to require from the Issuer the additional information regarding information published in Prospectus and publishing this information through Exchange disclosure system; or publish this information itself.
- 16.4.3. The listing body has the right to make lawful exceptions to the requirements provided in clause 16.4.1.
- 16.4.4. The Prospectus shall be published no later than three (3) trading days before the first trading day of the securities, unless provided differently in legal acts.
- 16.4.5. The Prospectus shall be considered to be duly published if is made available in accordance with the requirements of laws and has been electronically forwarded to the Exchange in the format imposed by the Exchange.

16.5. Requirements for disclosure of information to Issuer deriving from admission to trading to the Secondary List

- 16.5.1. The Issuer of the securities admitted to the Secondary List is obliged to adhere to the provisions of the part "Requirements to Issuers" of the Rules.
- 16.5.2. The Exchange has the right to make exceptions to the requirements provided in clause 16.5.1.

16.6. Transactions with securities admitted to Secondary list

The parts "Baltic Member Rules" and "Rules for clearing and settlement of Exchange transactions" (Settlement Rules) of the Rules as well as other rules of laws, the Rules and Other Rules regulating trading and settlement of listing securities, shall apply to the performance of trading on the Secondary List and their clearing and settlement.

16.7. Exceptions

The Exchange, including its listing body, has the right to make exceptions to the provisions of this chapter "Secondary List" (incl its sub-chapter "SPAC List") in individual cases. Upon making an exception, the Exchange and listing body are obliged to proceed from the protection of the interests of investors and the making of the exception may not be in conflict with the provisions of the laws.

16.8. Application of parts "Supervision" and "Penal Fines" of the Rules

The provisions of the parts "Supervision" and "Penal Fines" of the Rules shall be applied to exercising supervision of the activities of the Issuers admitted to the Secondary list, including suspension and termination of trading and enforcement of sanctions in the securities admitted to trading to the Secondary list.

16.9. Listing of securities traded in the Secondary List and admission to trading to the Secondary List of listed securities.

16.9.1. On the basis of Issuer's relevant written application, the listing body has a right to list the securities of the Issuer traded on the regulated market, provided that the Issuer and securities issued by it and also documents submitted are in accordance with the terms for listing imposed by laws and the Rules.

16.9.2. In case of fully completed Business Combination in relation to SPAC and subsequent listing of related combined Issuer, the trading in shares of SPAC will be terminated in the regulated market. In case of shares of combined Issuer will be admitted to trading to Secondary List, the trading in shares of SPAC will be terminated in the SPAC list.

In case the SPAC does not form the Business Combination within due time, or the Business Combination does not meet the listing requirements as set out in the Clauses 7.2.1. and 7.2.2. and 17.4.3., 17.5 and 17.6.3 or the SPAC completes the Business Combination without approval from the Exchange or Listing Body refuses to list shares of the Combined Issuer for any other reason, the Exchange may decide to terminate the trading in the shares of the SPAC.

16.9.4. On the basis of Issuer's relevant written application, the listing body has a right to delist the securities of the Issuer pursuant to the usual procedure based on the provisions regulating the delisting from the Exchange and admit these securities to trading to Secondary List. In such case the Exchange shall not demand submission of additional information or supplementary documents from the Issuer.

17.3.4 If under the Clause 4.3.5. the submission of the Prospectus is not required, the SPAC shall submit and disclose the Information Memorandum, which shall contain at least information referred to in the Clauses 4.3.5. and 17.

17.4. Proceeds from the public offer

- 17.4.1. At least 90 per cent of the gross proceeds from the public offering and any other sale of the shares (or other equity securities) by the SPAC must be deposited in a blocked bank account (deposit account) maintained by a credit institution independent from the SPAC.
- 17.4.2. Part of the proceeds not deposited shall be used for business activities of SPAC related to finding the Target Company and preparing the acquisition.
- 17.4.3. The aggregate fair market value of the Target Company(ies) forming Business Combination, shall be of at least 80 per cent of the value of the deposit account (excluding any deferred underwriters fees and taxes payable on the income earned on the deposit account) at the time of the agreement to enter into the initial Business combination.

17.5. Time period for Business Combination

Within 36 months of the date of admission to trading, or shorter period in case the SPAC specifies so in its Prospectus or Information Memorandum, the SPAC must complete one or more Business Combinations having an aggregate fair market value as set out in the Clause 17.4.3.

17.6. Approvals and procedures of Business Combination

- 17.6.1. Until the SPAC has satisfied the conditions set out in the Clauses 17.4.3. and 17.5. above, each Business Combination must be approved by:
- 17.6.1.1. The Management Board and the Supervisory Council of the SPAC; and
 - 17.6.1.2. the General Meeting of the shareholders of SPAC at which the Business Combination is being considered.
- 17.6.2. Until the SPAC has satisfied the conditions set out in the Clauses 17.4.3. and 17.5. above, the SPAC must notify the Exchange as soon as possible about each proposed/identified Business Combination prior to the disclosure of such Business Combination to the public following the requirements set forth for inside information. I.e. the SPAC shall, as soon as the SPAC has opened an insider register and decided on delayed disclosure with respect to the proposed Business Combination, inform the Exchange about the proposed Business Combination.
- 17.6.3. The SPAC cannot complete such Business Combination unless and until the Exchange has approved it by confirming that the Combined Issuer, giving effect to the Business Combination, fulfils the listing requirements set forth in These Listing Rules, provided that the Combined Issuer fulfils the listing requirements after completion all Business Combinations. Approval of the Exchange withing the meaning of These Rules is Conditional Listing Decision according the Clause 7.2.4. In case SPAC will complete the Business Combination without approval (Conditional Listing Decision) of Exchange, the SPAC can be delisted, or Exchange has the right to not consider this combined business as a Business Combination under the meaning of these Rules.
- 17.6.4. When the proposed Business Combination has been disclosed to the public, the SPAC's financial instruments will receive observation status in accordance with the Chapter "Surveillance" of the Rules, what is used as a tool to highlight to the market that there is a significant change occurring within the SPAC. The observation status will be removed when all listing requirements have been met and the Business Combination will be listed as a Combined Issuer.

17.7. Redemption Right

- 17.7.1. Until the SPAC has satisfied the conditions set out in the Clauses 17.4.3. and 17.5. above and provided that the Business Combination is approved and completed in accordance with law, the SPAC's Articles of Association shall provide shareholders with the opportunity to redeem their shares into cash equal to their pro rata share of the aggregate amount then in the deposit account (net of taxes payable and amounts distributed to management for working capital purposes).
- 17.7.2. For the purposes of the Clause 17.7.1. the SPAC may establish a limit (set no lower than 10% of the Issuer's total share capital) with respect to which any shareholder may exercise such redemption rights. The redemption right shall be open for a reasonable time period.
